Stand Up Inside and Be All In
Gary B. Sabin
April 2017 Conference
Saturday Afternoon Session

• The Lord requires the heart and a willing mind. Our whole heart! What does it mean to give the Lord our whole heart? ____________________________________________________________
                                                                                           ____________________________________________________________
                                                                                           ____________________________________________________________

• What happens when we are complacent with our covenants? __________________________
                                                                                           ____________________________________________________________

• Is it easier to be all in, partially in, or not in at all? ______________________________
  o Explain: _________________________________________________________________
                                                                                           ____________________________________________________________
                                                                                           ____________________________________________________________

• What does it mean to stand up on the inside? ______________________________________
                                                                                           ____________________________________________________________
                                                                                           ____________________________________________________________
  o What are some examples in your life of times when you stood up on the inside? _____
                                                                                           ____________________________________________________________
                                                                                           ____________________________________________________________
  o Are there examples in your life of others who, because they stood up on the inside, changed your life? ________________________________________________________
                                                                                           ____________________________________________________________
                                                                                           ____________________________________________________________
